

Crescent Power, Inc. is an energy consulting company that provides consulting services and expert advice to Utilities, Marketers, Generators, Retail Electric Providers, Wholesale Suppliers, Independent System Operators, and Software Vendors.

We manage our client's power portfolios, soliciting, evaluating, negotiating and contracting power purchase/sale agreements including full requirements and complex pricing contracts, structuring financial and insurance products to manage risk, designing deregulated market structures, developing competitive market strategies, providing expert testimony on these topics, and developing requirements for software systems related to participation in deregulated markets.